Atlanta BeltLine's Northside trail is just a few steps away from your new four bedroom, three and a half bath townhome. Nestled in Collier Hills where Midtown and Buckhead come together, this home offers remarkable access to all Atlanta has to offer. A spacious master suite with separate vanities, a free standing shower, and a garden tub adorned with leaded glass provide an oasis to start and end your days. Two additional guest rooms on the top floor in a roommate configuration from the master offer privacy while in close proximity. On the main living level, the kitchen boasts a breakfast nook and picture window to the open concept living and dining areas. This floorplan allows for modern living without having to see the kitchen mess while entertaining. The living area features a fireplace, and easy access to the large private deck. The first floor boasts a 2 car garage with electric car charger, a fourth bedroom, third bath, the laundry room, and an additional outdoor patio. Brookw...
